Behavioural Supports Ontario (BSO) Transitions Pathway

Identify risks and contributing factors related to behaviours/ expresisons

Apply skills and competencies learned through the BETSI cŭrriculum

Promote personhood

Anticipated move for person with, or at risk of, responsive behaviours/ personal expressions (pre-BSO involvement)

Collaborate with family care partners and team members

Collect personhood information

Summary[©])

BSO referral

for transitional support

Meet and collaborate with family care partners

2

Meet with person and develop rapport

Prepare for the transition/move

Identify and collaborate with members of the circle of care

Collaborate

partners

1

Identify available behavioural supports (e.g. embedded and mobile BSO team members)

Confirm goal of BSO involvement

Regional intake processes/documentation and assign to BSO clinician/team

Gain consent for BSO involvement

Organize/participate in a care conference with sending and receiving teams, family care partners and others

Collaborate with receiving team/care partners regarding details of move and to ensure new environment is ready

Create a transitional care plan

Collaborate to transfer information from MTCP into care plan

Support the person during the move

Utilize personhood information to promote a sense of familiarity and meaningful engagement

Identify and engage in capacity building opportunities

Support the Transition

Support family care partners

Support implementation of all MTCP elements

Participate in team huddles and care conferences

Coach and model approaches

Monitor & Evaluate the Transition

Determine if transitional goals are met

Seek perspectives from the person, family care partners and clinical teams

Identify any behavioural support needs

Warm hand-over using local processes/documentation (discharge from BSO)

OR

Initiate comprehensive behavioural assessment using the

Behavioural Support Assessment

(see Step 2 in BSO Pathway)

BSO tools and resources noted in orange font.

Behavioural Supports Ontario

Soutien en cas de troubles du comportement en Ontario

The BSO Pathway is based on the Guiding Checklist: Supporting Transitions from Acute/Community into Long-Term Care and the BSO Provincial Practice Standards. Developed April 2024.

Contact the BSO Provincial Coordinating Office

1-855-276-6313

provincialBSO@nbrhc.on.ca

https://brainxchange.ca/BSO X @BSOprovOffice